

Title: Imbalance? Work-Care relations and Migrant Care-Work

Keynote address and Roundtable

Theme: Work-Care

Location: Roskilde University, April 12th, 2011. From 9.45 am to 5.30 pm.

Target Group: The event will be open to all. Invitations will be sent to practitioners in the field of social policy, academia, and students.

Participants:

Keynote speaker: Arlie Hochschild, Full Professor, University of California, Berkeley, USA

Performance and presentation: Ditte Maria Bjerg, stagedirector, performer and debater

Moderator: Professor Thomas P. Boje, Roskilde University

Roundtable:

1. Anders Ejrnæs, Associate Professor, Roskilde University, Denmark: Family Policy and Welfare Regimes
2. Rasmus Willig, Associate Professor, Roskilde University, Denmark: New Challenges Concerning Day Care Worker's Autonomy and Profession
3. Hanne Warming, Associate Professor, Roskilde University, Denmark: Participation and Citizenship of Children and Youth at Risk
4. Helle Stenum, Postdoc, Roskilde University, Denmark: Migrant Domestic Workers in Europe: the case of au-pairs.
5. Hanne Marlene Dahl, Associate Professor, Roskilde University, Denmark, and Marlene Spanger, Ph.D. Fellow, Roskilde University, Denmark: The Transnational and Local Motherhood of Sex Workers: Presence and/ or Absence?
6. Lise Widding Isaksen, Professor, University of Bergen, Norway: Global Care Work: Is there a Nordic Model?

The seminar will be hosted by: Work-Care Synergies - Danish Team (Framework Program by EU), Dansk Sociologforening (The Danish Sociological Association) and Center for Køn, Magt og Mangfoldighed (CKMM).